It was hot in Colfax during our July campout, but for most part we stayed inside either the clubhouse or our rigs. Some of the guys did go fishing, but they came up short.

For the first time in quit awhile we played bean bag baseball. Matter of fact it was so much fun we played two games.

Our potluck super Friday evening was just fabulous. Some of us motored to Cracker Barrell for super Saturday night.

We want to welcome our new members; David & Janie Vicknair of Alexandria, LA.

At our July meeting we voted to drop our membership in the Good Sam Club and the Louisiana Good Sam Organization.

The rationale for this decision was that neither the Good Sam Club nor the Louisiana Good Sam Organization did anything for our organization.

We will continue as the Rainbow Riders and if anyone wants to attend the Samboree they will do so at large.

Individual members of the Rainbow Riders will continue their membership in the Good Sam Club

Our bylaws will be re-written to reflect this change.

When searching for holidays and special events during the month of August, I found that not much happened. Some of our members were born in August, so I guess that is a special event. They are: Eva Crusenberry on the 6th, Clarence Filipi on the 10th and Huey Campbell on the 29th.

Our August campout will be at Poche's RV Park near Breaux Bridge starting on the 14th. For those of you with internet access their website is www.pochesmarket.com/camp/index2.htm

We will have potluck for the Friday night meal. There are plenty good eating places in the Breaux Bridge – Lafayette area.

There are a lot of good shopping places in Lafayette.

Here are the directions to Poche's. Take exit 2 off I-49 in Carenco, LA, just north of Lafayette. Go east on Gloria Switch Road (La 98) for approximately 4 miles, then turn left on Sawmill Hwy (LA 354) for approximately 4 miles to Poche's Fish-N-Camp. Or take exit 109 off I-10 in Breaux Bridge. Go north on High 328 for approximately 2 miles. Turn left on Poche Bridge Road. Turn right on Hwy 31, almost immediately turn left on La 341 (Declouet Rd) near Poche's Market, Restaurant, and smokehouse. Follow the signs to the camp.

THE DIP
By Jessie Filipi

- 1 ½ cups shredded sharp cheddar cheese

- 1 8oz cream cheese
- 1 jar pepper jelly (red or green)

Mix all ingredients except the pepper jelly and put in a flat dish like pie plate, then heat pepper jelly and pour on top. Makes it look real pretty.
