The weather was not that good in Colfax during the January campout, but I am sure everyone has heard the old saying “gumbo weather”, well we made it chili weather. About 6 of the women made chili from their favorite recipe and they dumped it all in one big pot for a “Chili Dump.” It sure was good! Look at the size of that pot!

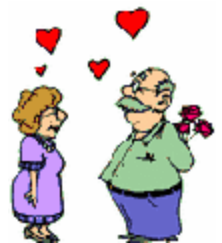

Louis & Clarence got together and made a coat rack, which was donated to Colfax RV Park for their clubhouse. Clarence and Jessie delivered. Big Larry, with the help of Clarence mounted it.

February campout will be at Poche's

Fish N Camp near Breaux Bridge starting on the 18th. The Friday evening meal will be grilled chicken. Louis and Clarence will do the grilling. We will share the cost of the chickens. Everyone should bring their favorite cover dish or desert to compliment the chicken.

Some of us made a couple trips to the chicken place in Colfax. Some went to Natchitoches to eat Mexican at Niki's.

On Saturday morning, Eva broke out her favorite biscuit recipe and chocked out a couple pans made from scratch.

Margie reported Wednesday that Bob was home and doing well, however he is having some problems with his feet. He will be taking therapy.

We are hoping Bob will be able to ride over to Poche's and visit with us during our February campout.

Well, February produced some great people. Abe Lincoln on the 12, George Washington on the 22nd, Charlie Haynes on the 9th, Louis on the 14th and Sharon on the 16th!

Also, the Crusenberry's were married on the 2nd and the Filip's on the 5th.

We ran into a conflict with our March campout. We were originally scheduled to go to Lincoln Parish Park, but we got our request in too late. Another club booked in ahead of us. Our Wagon master did some quick thinking and booked us into Rayne on the same dates – 18 – 20 March. We will have the Green Room at Rayne. That is the building near the pool.

We are saddened to hear that the Bergeron's will not return this year. They have decided to take a break.

Just a sneak preview...We saw Bob & Kay Wieters motorhome at a detail shop yesterday. Do think maybe they are getting it ready for a trip with the Rainbow Riders? If that is the case, you guys sure are welcome.
