Eva and I hated to miss the May campout, but we had a good visit with our son and his wife in Florida – had some great food.

Thanks to Charlie Haynes we can report some of the happenings at the May campout.

Eight units showed up - the Flemings, Filipi's, Jones, Miller's, Weatherford's, Haynes, Beauregard's, and the Daughtry's. Five came in Wednesday. We all went to Carolines's to eat - very good.

The Daughtry's, Beauregard's and the Flemings came in Thursday. Some of the group went to Cyote Blues to eat Mexican - delish!

In the meantime Vicknair's came for the Friday night supper and meeting, which we didn't have but enjoyed their company. Janie brought a new dice game which was very interesting.

We were unable to have the meeting because there was not enough members present to constitute a quorum.

From all indication's Jessie's accident was the highlight or maybe we should say the "lowlight" of the trip

Friday afternoon, we had a scare. Jessie fell out the door of their trailer carrying supplies for the meal over to the meeting room. Clarence and Cal were on their way back from town and just in time. Clarence found Jessie inside and rushed her back to Alexandria to Cabrini hospital to be seen there.

We just happened to find a picture of that foot a few days later after the swelling subsided somewhat and the color was beginning to return, but as you can see it looks pretty bad. The thing I noticed right away was, she is not wearing any nail polish.

Comments by Jessie: What a gorgeous foot? I found out one thing – I can't fly. I would like to thank you all for helping Clarence get things together and checking on me.

Love you all! Jessie

We all played a lot of pegs and Jokers this time - very small group but sure had a good time as usual. Thunderstorms were all around us most of the time, but we did fine, not even any rain.

Cory Haynes and his family, Austin and Tracy came out to be with John and Charlie and had a good time fishing. Charlie Weatherford and John caught a lot of fish - of course they enjoyed that.

A group went back to Caroline's Saturday evening for supper. We all ate leftovers for lunch - mostly Betty and Cal's brisket.

Jack & Shelia brought the monthly gift – supplied by the Campbell's who could not make it. Huey was involved cooking for the church. By the way; the Daughtry's won the gift.

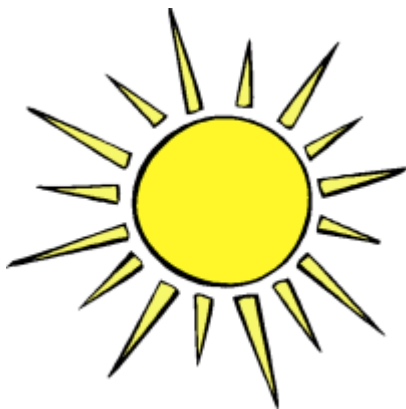

The June campout will be at Nakatosh RV Park in Natchitoches starting on the 18th. The Friday evening meal will be Pot Luck.

Don't forget to call or email Jack and let him know whether you are going or not.

Happy Birthday
Bonnie Hebert – June 6
Charlie Weatherford - June 30

Looks like we had two weddings in June – the Hampshire's on the 5th and the Haynes on the 23th.

Summer starts on the 21st.
