Before we get started we want to say how sorry we are to hear about the death of Charlie Weatherford's sister. He and Esther missed the February campout because of her illness. She died Friday morning. Our prayers are with you Charlie.

Our February campout in Breaux Bridge was just great. We had some great guest – Bob and Kay Wieters. Bob finally got their motorhome out of moth balls, had it cleaned up and joined us. It sure was good to see him back and of course we fell in love with Kay.

We had a good turnout. Even Waymon Freeman showed up. From all indications the fishing was pretty good. We heard some good fish "tails", but we ate chicken Friday night.

Louis & Clarence cooked up a pile of chickens on the grill with a hungry audience patiently looking on.

March's campout will be at Rayne City RV Park starting on the 18th. Individual reservations are not required.

The campground is just off I-10, exit 87. Go south approximately 2 blocks. The park is to your right. Rayne is in the heart of Cajun Country -- fifteen miles west of urban Lafayette, LA and skirting a thriving small town with fabulous antique shopping, Cajun and American cuisine at its finest, and one of the country's last remaining five-and-dime stores. It is the Frog Capitol of the World, so fill up on frog legs while you are there. Here is their website:

The Friday evening meal will be titled "Casserole and Salad Supper". Everyone should bring their favorite casserole and or favorite salad.

Everyone should call or email Jack and let him know your intentions as soon as possible, so he can firm up our reservations. His number and email address are on the membership roster. I have attached an updated copy.

We do have two Leprechauns' in our club. Bob Walker was born on the 5th and Cal Jones on the 11th.

Eva & I visited the Walkers Sunday. Bob is doing great. The doctors have given him his “steering wheel” back for short trips. He is starting rehab this week.

While there Margie fixed up a great plate of vittles. One thing she had was what she called Lime Jello Mold. I thought it was great, although it had mayonnaise and cheese in it and I don't eat either. She pulled one on me. 😊

The Millers came over to the Walkers while we were there, so we had a great visit. Here is a picture of Bob that I took with my cell phone. Notice the weight loss. He looks great.

Al Hampshire has been under the weather also. Let's all keep both Bob and Al in our prayers.

I was thinking since the 17th is St Patrick's Day Margie's Lime Jello Mold would be a great St Patty's Day salad, so here is the recipe.

2 pkgs lime Jello - use juice of crushed pineapple for water, when lightly jelled beat Jello with beater, then add 1 cup mayonnaise, beat well. Then add 1 can crushed pineapple, 1 cup shredded cheese. Mix well with spoon. Put in dish and set until ready to serve.
